BURNLEY v BOLTON WANDERERS

SATURDAY, 5TH AUGUST, 1989

Kick-off 3.00p.m.

A WARM WELCOME TO BOLTON WANDERERS

This afternoon sees the start of the Lancashire Manx Cup Competition, with Bolton Wanderers visiting Turf Moor.

Last season was a mixed season for Bolton in division three after poor early season results, Wanderers saved the season with a twenty match unbeaten run which broke a 55 year record. They ended the season in tenth place, eight points off a promotion play off place. They had a great run in the Sherpa Van Trophy which culminated in another Wembley appearance and an emphatic 4–1 victory over Torquay United, in front of a 46,513 crowd. Despite going a goal down, Phil Neal's team hit back to win with goals from Julian Darby, Jeff Chandler, Dean Crombie and Trevor Morgan.

Bolton earned around £100,000 from their Wembley trip and Neal has put this to good use signing Oldham striker Tony Philliskirk for £50,000. Hereford goalkeeper Kevin Rose £20,000 and David Reeves from Sheffield Wednesday. Reeves of course needs little introduction to Clarets fans. Neal released two youngster's Ian Callaghan and Chris O'Brien at the end of last season and also transferred experienced striker John Thomas to West Brom for a fee of £30,000 set by a tribunal.

Wanderers have recently returned from taking part in the Isle of Man Tournament and start their league campaign at Cardiff City on August, 19th.

GOALKEEPERS

David Felgate – Born Blaenau Ffestiniog – 04/03/60. Highly rated goalkeeper who began his career at Burnden Park but was transferred to Lincoln City after failing to make the first team and following loan spells at Rochdale (twice), Bradford and Crewe. Made 198 appearances at Sincil Bank, later having spells at Cardiff (loan) and Grimsby. Re-joined Bolton in February 1987 for £27,000. Won one Welsh cap in 1984. Offered a new contract in the summer.

Kevin Rose – Born Evesham – 23/11/60. Summer signing from Hereford United for £20,000. Rose started his career at Lincoln but after joining Hereford he made over 320 consecutive league and cup appearances before losing his place through last season to Tony Elliott.

DEFENDERS

Phil Brown – Born South Shields – 30/05/57. Signed by Bolton from Halifax Town in June 1988 for £17,000. After starting his league career at Hartlepool for whom he made 210 league appearances. Made 135 appearances at Halifax and became a favourite last season at Burnden Park.

Paul Hughes – Born Manchester – 19/02/68. Twenty one year old full back, who came through the Wanderers youth and reserve teams. Made his league debut in December 1987 in a 2–1 win over Stockport County.

Barry Cowdrill – Born Birmingham – 03/01/57. Began his career at West Brom, where he made 127 appearances. Released by Albion in May 1988 and joined Wanderers, where he can play either in defence or on the left hand side of midfield.

Dean Crombie – Born Lincoln – 09/08/54. Although Crombie began his career at Lincoln, he made some 320 league appearances with Grimsby Town. Joined Bolton on a free transfer in July 1987 and was offered a new contract this summer. Scored the third goal against Torquay at Wembley.

Mark Winstanley – Born St. Helens – 22/01/68. Tall central defender who came through the ranks to make his league debut at Bournemouth in March 1986 and helped the club to promotion in 1988.

Mark Came – Born Exeter – 14/09/61. Joined Wanderers from non-league Winsford United in 1984 and has made nearly 200 appearances for Wanderers since his league debut in a 2–0 defeat. At Doncaster Rovers in September 1984.

FRANK CASPER MANAGERS · OPINION

THIS afternoon we welcome the chairman, his fellow directors, manager Phil Neal and players of Bolton Wanderers and their fans to Turf Moor for the first of the annual pre-season Lancs-Manx Cup games.

Bolton, whom we congratulate on winning the Sherpa Van Trophy at Wembley last May, have recently returned from a competition in the Isle of Man and, like us, will be using these games in this tournament to formulate the teams we both hope will bring us successful seasons in the league competition starting a fortnight today.

Our build-up so far has been shorter than usual for it is less than three weeks ago that we got our new players and those retained from last season back into training.

By today we will have had three competitive games – at Gloucester, Worcester and, last Tuesday night, here against Scottish Premier League club Hibernian.

Our mini-trip to the Cotswolds last week was arranged mainly to get our players match fit and to give our retained and new players a chance to have four days together to get to know each other, the first step in building up the team spirit so vital to any game.

And this point, sadly, brings me to a task which I do not enjoy and, frankly, had never thought would be necessary.

It is to ask a minority – and I stress the word minority – of our supporters who came to watch us at Gloucester and Worcester not to repeat their behaviour there.

There was no violence; no need for any police intervention and the fans of the two-league clubs probably didn't realise what was going on in any case.

But what happened showed that this minority were completely unaware of the prime object of the exercise which was to get our players away to train very hard – and they did – in different surroundings and to get to know each other off the field as well as on it.

Had they realised that we had gone there for these reasons, obviously hoping not to be beaten but not putting the result as the most important part of the exercise, maybe they would have refrained from behaviour which saddened me, upset many of our players and, last but not least, was an insult to our chairman, Mr Frank Teasdale.

So, if anyone has a beef, take it out on me, not Mr Teasdale. I expect flak and will face it if it is given constructively and sensibly.

So please lads, whoever you are, think before you act if you want to play a part in making this club successful as so many of our fans do.

And I can assure you that Burnley Football Club has no bigger or more dedicated fan than Mr Teasdale.

Burnley's record this season had a familiar look . . . only one team in the First Division scored fewer goals, but none conceded less. The hallmarks of the team which Alan Brown had captained to promotion and Wembley in 1947 were still there ten years later, in his final season in the manager's seat before leaving for Sunderland.

In a season when only the two Manchester clubs managed to win at Turf Moor, away form was disappointing, so seventh position was the end result for the second season running. Peter McKay remained a prolific scorer at the start of the season, with nine goals in the first eleven games, but the supply had slowed down by Christmas and he returned to his native Scotland with a transfer to St. Mirren in January 1957.

The nucleus of a championship side was emerging by now, however. Adam Blacklaw made his League debut in the 6-2 win over Cardiff three days before Christmas; John Angus debuted in September and soon made the right-back position his own; Brian Miller proved himself a worthy successor to Les Shannon at No.6; and two promising forwards, John Connelly and Jimmy Robson, made their first appearance in 56/57. Four of these players were future internationals, and none of them cost Burnley a penny in transfer fees.

The F.A. Cup provided much excitement and plenty of goals. After Third Division Chesterfield were dispatched in Round 3, non-League New Brighton provided the Claret's with more target practice in the fourth round; the 9-0 scoreline equalled the club record, and a penalty was missed! Ian Lawson, a centre-forward who never became a first-team regular but occupied the position for a short time after McKay's departure, scored seven goals in these two games. The cup run ended in the quarter-final when Burnley's bogey side of the fifties, Aston Villa, again proved better Cup-fighters. They proved the point by going on to win at Wembley.

PROGRAMME PARADE

Clashes with Bolton Wanderers go back to the early day of our two clubs, who were both of course founder members of the league in 1888. In that season Burnley did the 'double' coming from 3-0 down to win 4-3 at Bolton and winning 4-1 at Turf Moor, the following season at home we won 7-0. Over the years Bolton gained revenge, especially at Burnden Park, winning 5-0 in 1924-25 and 7-1 in 1927-28, Blackmore 4 and Jack 3 scoring the Bolton goals as Burnley 'keeper Sommeville broke his collar bone. In 1934-35 they also triumphed 7-0 at Bolton.

One of the most incredible games took place at Burnden Park on Saturday November 19th, 1960. Burnley were of course league champions and playing in the European Cup. They went into the game on a high, having beaten French club Rheims 2-0 with goals from Robson and McIlroy, as well as being fourth in the league Bolton were down near the bottom with only Blackpool and Nottingham Forest below them, though they had beaten Manchester City 3-1 in their last home match.

The first fifteen minutes saw some hard fought play. A typical local derby but two minutes later, Robsons pass found Connelly who scored to give Burnley the lead on twenty four minutes Wanderers equalised McAdams scoring from a Stevens pass, McAdams had once had a trial at Burnley. Tommy Cummings returning in place of Jimmy Adamson had a fine game but man of the match was to be Ray Pointer.

Pointer had a hand on restoring the Clarets lead taking a pass from Miller and crossing the ball to John Connelly to score past Hopkinson. The 23,897 crowd now saw Burnley in full flow, Robson scoring just after the interval, when Pointer outraced the defence and his cross was headed against the underside of the bar. Ray Pointer scored twice, his second being a brilliant diving header from a Pilkington cross Bolton trailed 5-1 and looking as though they could get swamped.

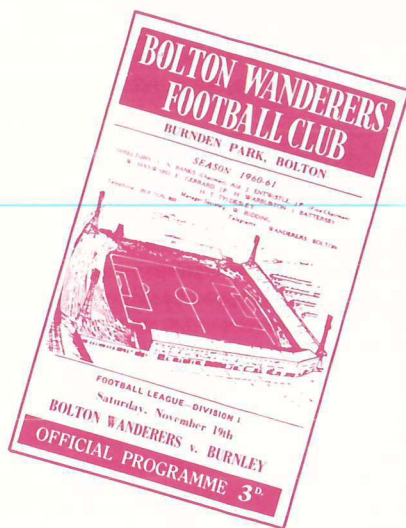

They did though save a late fight back inspired by their 16 year old outside right, named in the programme as F.H. Lee. Francis Lee made it 5-2 and after four consecutive corners McAdams scored his second for a final score of Bolton Wanderers 3 Burnley 5. A defeat which left Bolton next to bottom ahead of Nottingham Forest and Burnley fourth behind Tottenham, Sheffield Wednesday and Everton.

The two teams were:-

Bolton – Hopkinson, Hartle, Cooper, Stanley, Higgins, Cunliffe, Lee, Hill, McAdams, Stevens, Holden.

Burnley – Blacklaw, Angus, Marshall, Joyce, Cummings, Miller, Connelly, McIlroy, Pointer, Robson, Pilkington.

Bolton's programme was an eight page issue, price 3d and included pen pictures on the Burnley players:

Julian Darby – Born Bolton – 03/10/67. Signed for Wanderers straight from school and can play in defence or midfield. Made his league debut on March 31st, 1986 in a 3–1 defeat at home to Blackpool. Scored at Wembley last May in the Sherpa Van final.

MIDFIELD

Nick Brookman – Born Manchester – 28/10/68. Another home grown player, the 20 year old Brookman made his league debut in April 1987 in a 2–0 home win over Carlisle United.

Robbie Savage – Born Liverpool – 08/01/60. Tough tackling midfield player, who can also play at full back. His career started as an apprentice at Liverpool but failed to make the first team in six seasons. After a loan spell at Wrexham, he moved to Stoke City for £10,000, Bournemouth (£15,000), Bradford City (£35,000) and joined Bolton Wanderers in September 1987 for £38,000. Scored the winning goal to clinch promotion to Division three, in 1988 offered a new contract this summer.

Jeff Chandler – Born Liverpool – 19/06/59. Much travelled and highly talented, thirty year old who is in his second spell at Burnden Park. Played for Blackpool and Leeds before joining Bolton in 1981 making 152 appearances. Moved on to Derby in 1985 and after a spell on loan to Mansfield, returned to Burnden Park in July 1987 but missed most of the 1987–88 season due to injury. Gave Bolton the lead at Wembley and has recently accepted a new contract.

Gary Henshaw – Born Leeds – 18/02/65. Started his career with Grimsby Town, where he made 50 appearances in five seasons. Joined Bolton in July 1987 on a free transfer and was another player to be offered new terms by manager Phil Neal this summer.

Steve Thompson – Born Oldham – 02/11/64. Joined Bolton as an apprentice in 1980, making his league debut in a 0–0 draw at Derby County in November 1982. Made nearly 250 league appearances and scored against Burnley in April 1988 when Bolton won 2–1.

Stuart Storer – Born Harborough – 16/01/67. Exciting wide player whose early career was at Mansfield and Birmingham. Joined Everton in 1987 along with Wayne Clarke. Joined Bolton initially on loan in December 1987, making his debut in a 0–0 draw at Hartlepool. Joined Wanderers on a permanent basis, costing them £25,000.

FORWARDS

Ian Stevens – Born Malta – 21/10/66. Made his league debut whilst playing for Preston North End in March 1985. This was followed by a spell at Stockport County and joined Bolton in 1987 after some good displays with the reserves.

Mike Jeffrey – Born Liverpool – 18 year old who broke into first team last season after working his way through the youth and reserve teams. Scored the only goal in the recent 1–0 win over Dundalk in the Isle of Man.

Tony Philliskirk – Born Sunderland – 10/02/65. Started his career at Sheffield United, making his league debut in October 1983. Made 80 appearances for United and last summer joined Oldham Athletic, quickly moved on to Preston North End and Phil Neal signed him recently for £50,000.

David Reeves – Born Heswall – 19/11/67. Needs no introduction at Turf Moor, David joined Sheffield Wednesday in 1986 but didn't make his league debut until signing on loan for Scunthorpe United. Joined Burnley on loan in November 1987, scoring on his league debut against Wanderers! Scored 8 goals in 16 league games broke into Wednesday's first team last season but joined Bolton recently in a transfer where the fee will be decided by a tribunal.
